

CENTRAL VALLEY

Media Fact Sheet

About

The Forum combines the Central Valley Venture Forum and Central Valley Stock Exchange – two events that in the past have shaped the entrepreneurial landscape in the valley and became the largest event for innovation and entrepreneurship in the Central Valley.

This annual event has something for companies and organizations of all sizes: a “Shark Tank” style competition, a stock exchange, and panel discussions for investors and startups. Entrepreneurs, can hear from industry leaders, angel investors, venture capitalists, and more. Investors, can listen to up-and-coming companies pitch to a panel of Judges and Investors. Everyone can visit the Stock Exchange to invest your “Bulldog Dollars” in the companies of your choice.

The Forum will be comprised of:

- Multiple panels that will provide tips for entrepreneurs
- Entrepreneurs contending for the “investors” Bulldog Dollars during the Stock Exchange portion of the event to be recognized as the Audience Choice
- Five ventures will also present to a panel of judges and investors to be recognized as the Judges Choice or the Investors Choice
